OF THE

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE,

PASSED JUNE SESSION, 1877.

CHAPTER I.

AN ACT TO REPEAL CHAPTER FORTY-SIX OF THE PAMPHLET LAWS OF 1876, ENTITLED "AN ACT IN AMENDMENT OF SECTION TWO OF CHAPTER ONE HUNDRED AND NINETY-THREE OF THE GENERAL STATUTES."

SECTION

1. Carroll county clerk's office and records.

SECTION

2. Takes effect, when.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

SECTION 1. Chapter forty-six of the Pamphlet Laws of 1876, ^{Carroll county clerk's office and records.} entitled "An act in amendment of section two of chapter one hundred and ninety-three of the General Statutes" is hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect from and after July 1, 1877. ^{Takes effect, when.}
[Approved June 22, 1877.]

CHAPTER II.

AN ACT IN AMENDMENT OF CHAPTER ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY FOUR OF THE GENERAL STATUTES, RELATING TO HOMESTEADS.

SECTION

1. Creditor may deny that real estate is subject to homestead right, upon which issue may be framed and tried under direction of the court.

SECTION

2. Attachment or levy not to lapse until thirty days after determination of such issue.
3. Court may adjust costs and require security therefor.
4. Repealing clause; takes effect, when.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened :

Creditor may deny that real estate is subject to homestead right, upon which issue may be framed and tried under direction of the court.

SECTION 1. Whenever any officer, having an execution against a husband to be levied on his real estate, shall be requested to cause a homestead to be set off as provided in the fifth section of the chapter of which this act is in amendment, if the creditor in such execution shall, by himself or his attorney, deliver to said officer a notice in writing denying that such real estate is legally subject to any homestead right, such officer shall forthwith return said execution to the clerk's office from which it issues, with his certificate thereon of such request and denial. The creditor shall thereupon, under such orders or rules as the court may make or establish, file his declaration of the grounds of his denial of such right of homestead, upon which an issue shall be framed, under the direction of the court, for the determination of such right, which shall be tried by the court or the jury according as such issue shall be one of law or fact, on the determination of which a further execution shall issue for the amount of the debt and costs in the former one, on which the clerk shall certify the judgment rendered upon said trial, whereupon the officer to whom the same shall be delivered shall proceed to set off the homestead, or to levy such execution without such set-off, according as said certificate may be.

Attachment or levy not to lapse until thirty days after determination of such issue.

SEC. 2. Any attachment subsisting or any levy commenced at the return of any execution as provided in section one of this act, shall remain in force and take precedence as in other cases of attachment or levy, until the expiration of thirty days after the final judgment on the issue framed as aforesaid; and such further execution shall have the same force and may be levied upon any property in the same manner as if it were the original execution in the cause.

Court may adjust costs and require security therefor.

SEC. 3. Costs may be allowed to the prevailing party in said issue, or limited or wholly disallowed, as the court may in its discretion determine; and said court may order such security for costs as they may deem reasonable, and when costs shall be allowed execution shall issue therefor.

Repealing clause; takes effect, when.

SEC. 4. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect upon its passage.

[Approved June 22, 1877.]

CHAPTER III.

paid into the treasury on or before the first day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight; and the state treasurer is hereby directed seasonably to issue his warrant to the selectmen of the several towns and places, and to the assessors of the several cities in this state, according to the apportionment of public taxes made June session, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six; and the selectmen of such towns and places, and the assessors of such cities, are hereby required to assess the sums specified in said warrant, and cause the same to be paid to said treasurer on or before the first day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight; and the state treasurer is hereby authorized to issue his extents for all the taxes which shall then remain unpaid.

[Approved July 10, 1877.]

CHAPTER XXXIII.

AN ACT TO FIX THE TIME WHEN THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS, ADOPTED IN MARCH LAST, SHALL TAKE EFFECT; AND ALSO PROVIDING FOR COMPILING THE STATUTES OF THE STATE.

SECTION

1. Constitutional amendments to take effect, when.

SECTION

2. Governor and council authorized to appoint commissioners to compile the statutes of the State.

3. Takes effect, when.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

SECTION 1. That the amendments of the constitution of this state, which were proposed by the constitutional convention of said state at its session in December, 1876, and which were submitted to and legally adopted by the qualified voters of said state at the annual election in March, 1877, shall take effect at the times following, to wit:

1. The amendment relating to the trial of causes, in which the value in controversy does not exceed one hundred dollars and the title to real estate is not concerned, without the intervention of a jury, which is covered by the second question thus submitted to said voters; and the several amendments abolishing the religious test as a qualification for office, all which are covered by the seventh question thus submitted to said voters; and the amendments authorizing the general court to provide that appeals from a justice of the peace may be tried without the intervention of a jury, and authorizing said general court to increase the jurisdiction of justices of the peace to one hundred dollars, as covered by the tenth and eleventh questions thus submitted; and the amendment prohibiting money raised by taxation from being applied to the support of schools or institutions of any religious sect or denomination, as covered by the thirteenth question thus submitted,—shall all take effect on the first day of August next.

Constitutional amendments to take effect as follows:

Relating to trial of small causes.

Abolishing religious test.

Increasing jurisdiction of justices of the peace.

Prohibiting taxation for sectarian schools,—on the first day of August, 1877.

Changing time of holding state election, on the first day of October, 1878.

2. The several amendments relating to the change of time for holding the state elections from March to November, and providing that the election shall be biennial, or only once in two years, shall take effect on the first day of October, A. D., 1878, and the first election under said amendments shall be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, A. D., 1878. So that, upon that day (the state having been previously redistricted for the choice of senators, and the number of representatives having been previously apportioned and ascertained), the members of the legislature, the executive officers of the state, county treasurers, registers of deeds, registers of probate, solicitors and sheriffs shall be elected under said amendments for two years. All the remaining amendments of said constitution which have been legally adopted shall take effect on the first Wednesday of June, A. D. 1879, the true intent and meaning of this provision being, that these constitutional amendments relating to elections and the tenure of office shall take effect at such times, as that there shall be an annual election in March next under the old constitution, and that the officers then elected shall hold their offices for one year, as they now do; and that at the election in November, A. D. 1878, all the officers above enumerated shall be elected under the amended constitution, for two years, and shall take their places on the first Wednesday of June, 1879, and that upon said day all the amendments to the constitution shall take full effect.

Other amendments on the first Wednesday of June, 1879.

Explanatory clause.

Commissioners to compile the statutes of the state.

SEC. 2. The governor, with advice of council, shall, as soon as may be, appoint and commission three persons learned in the law, whose duty it shall be to compile the public statutes of this state now in force, including those of the present session, and arrange the same according to the form and order of the general statutes, as far as may be, and prepare the same for publication before the next session of the legislature, in June, 1878, and make report to said legislature; and said commissioners shall be authorized to make such changes and alterations in the existing laws as they may deem necessary on account of the adoption of said constitutional amendments, and also on account of any change that may be made in the time of holding the election for the choice of town officers, or in the tenure of office of such officers. With the above exceptions, and such others, if any, as the legislature may prescribe, the work of said commissioners shall be confined to a compilation of existing laws.

Takes effect, when.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

[Approved July 10, 1877.]

CHAPTER XXXIV.

AN ACT TO INCREASE THE REVENUES OF THE STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

- 1. Private acts of incorporation to be taxed.
- 2. Not to apply to voluntary corporations.

SECTION

- 3. Future acts of incorporation to become void, when.
- 4. Repealing clause.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened :

SECTION 1. That hereafter no private act passed by the legislature of this state, hereinafter described and assessed, shall be enrolled in the office of the secretary of state or published or have the force of law until the parties asking or requiring the same shall have paid into the state treasury the following sums, to wit: On every act incorporating, chartering, renewing or extending the corporate powers of any bank except savings banks, the sum of one dollar per thousand on the largest amount of capital authorized, and on every supplement thereto except such as provide for an increase of capital, the sum of twenty-five dollars. On every act incorporating, chartering, renewing or extending the corporate powers of any savings bank the sum of one hundred dollars, and for every supplement thereto the sum of twenty-five dollars. On every act incorporating, chartering, renewing or extending the corporate powers of any railroad or insurance company, fifty cents per thousand on the largest amount of capital authorized; and for every supplement thereto, except such as provide for an increase of capital, twenty-five dollars. On every act incorporating, chartering, renewing or extending the corporate powers of any water-power, aqueduct, gas-light, express, steamboat, bridge, ferry, co-operative or any other company which has for its object a division of profits, the sum of fifty dollars, and on every supplement thereto the sum of twenty-five dollars.

Private acts of incorporation to be taxed as follows :

Banks of discount $1.00 on every $1000 of certified stock.

Savings banks, $100.

Railroad and insurance companies fifty cents per thousand of authorized capital.

Other companies $50.

SEC. 2. This act shall not in any way apply to any benevolent, religious, charitable or educational institutions, agricultural societies or other associations, societies or companies which shall organize under the acts relating to voluntary corporations, chapters one hundred and thirty-eight and one hundred and thirty-nine of the General Statutes.

Not to apply to voluntary corporations.

SEC. 3. Any act or supplement thereto which shall come within the provisions of this act shall become null and void if the sums herein specified are not paid to the state treasurer within thirty days after the passage of said act of incorporation.

Acts to become void, when.

SEC. 4. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

Repealing clause.

[Approved July 11, 1877.]

CHAPTER XXXV.

AN ACT IN AMENDMENT OF SECTION SEVEN, CHAPTER ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-THREE, OF THE GENERAL STATUTES, IN REGARD TO THE PUBLICATION OF PROBATE NOTICES.

SECTION

1. Regulating the publication of probate notices.

SECTION

2. Repealing clause; takes effect, when.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

Regulating the publication of probate notices.

SECTION 1. That section seven of chapter one hundred and seventy-three of the General Statutes be amended by inserting after the word "prefer" in said section, the words, "printed in the county, if any, otherwise in some paper printed in the vicinity," so that said section shall read as follows:

All persons having business in the several probate courts and at the several probate offices shall have the right of selecting such newspapers as they may prefer printed in the county, if any, otherwise in some paper printed in the vicinity, for the publication of all legal notices which may be ordered under their application; but if in the judgment of any judge, the newspaper selected be deemed insufficient to give due publicity to any notice, he may order the publication in one other paper.

Repealing clause; takes effect, when.

SEC. 2. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect from its passage.

[Approved July 11, 1877.]

CHAPTER XXXVI.

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR THE REPAIRS OF THE ROADS IN GREEN'S GRANT AND MARTIN'S LOCATION IN THE COUNTY OF COOS, FOR A TERM OF YEARS.

3. State not to aid in repairing roads during the term of exemption.

SECTION

4. Portion not exempted to be taxed.
5. Repealing clause.
6. Takes effect, when.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

Green's Grant divided for taxation.

SECTION 1. That Green's Grant in the county of Coos, being an unincorporated place, hereafter be and hereby is, for the purposes of taxation, divided as follows, viz.: All that part lying southerly and westerly of Nineteen Mile Brook, running through said Grant, to the owners thereof, and all that part lying northerly and easterly of said Brook to the owners thereof, and that the whole valuation as now apportioned, to wit: Sixty-five thousand dollars, be divided and apportioned as follows: To that part lying southerly and westerly of said Nineteen Mile Brook, the sum of fifty-three thousand dollars, and to that part lying northerly and easterly of said Brook, the sum of twelve thousand dollars, during the term of the present apportionment as fixed by the act of 1876.

SEC. 2. That all that portion of said Green's Grant which lies southerly and westerly of said Nineteen Mile Brook, being the premises owned and occupied by W. and C. R. Milliken, be and hereby is exempted from taxation for the term of ten years from the passage of this act. Provided, however, that the said W. and C. R. Milliken, their successors and assigns, shall during said term keep and maintain in good and sufficient repair, to the satisfaction of the county commissioners of said county of Coos, the road leading through Martin's Location and Green's Grant, in said county, from the south line of Gorham, by the Glen House to the Jackson line, and also the road leading from said road, near Glen Cottage, so called, across Peabody river by Copp's and Culhorne's to said Gorham line, being all the main traveled roads in said Martin's Location and Green's Grant, as now laid and traveled.

A portion thereof exempted; proviso.

SEC. 3. In consideration of the aforesaid exemption, no aid for the repairs or maintenance of said roads during said term shall be granted by the state.

State not to aid in repairing roads during the term of exemption.

SEC. 4. Nothing in this act shall preclude the taxation of that portion of said Green's Grant which lies northerly and easterly of said Nineteen Mile Brook, but the same shall be taxed according to its value aforesaid, at an apportionment of seven cents on every one thousand dollars of the public taxes, hereafter to be raised, and the state and county treasurers shall issue their warrants accordingly.

Portion not exempted to be taxed.

SEC. 5. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act shall be and hereby are repealed.

Repealing clause.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Takes effect, when.

3. Boards to be sworn; their compensation.

SECTION

4. Financial agent; his report and compensation.
5. Boards to make annual reports.
6. Annual meetings.
7. Takes effect, when.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

SECTION 1. Any school district in any town of the state, which may so elect, and in which there are fifty children of school age, or which may support a public school during not less than thirty weeks in each year, or a graded school during not less than twenty-four weeks in each year, is hereby authorized at any legal meeting duly notified and holden for the purpose, to choose by ballot, and by major vote of the qualified voters of the district, a board of education consisting of six persons, having the legal qualifications prescribed by law for prudential and school committees, two of whom shall hold office for one year, two for two years, and two for three years from the time of the annual meeting in such district, and until others are duly chosen and qualified in their stead; the term of office of each to be determined by lot at the first meeting of the board, and a record thereof made. Two members of said board shall be chosen at every annual meeting of the district after the first choice thereof as aforesaid, by ballot and by major vote of the qualified voters of the district present and voting, to fill the vacancies that will annually occur by the expiration of the term of office of two of the incumbents, and to hold office for three years, and until others are chosen and qualified in their stead. Any vacancy occurring from any other cause may be filled in like manner at a special meeting held for the purpose, otherwise at the next annual meeting; and the person chosen to fill such vacancy shall hold office during the unexpired term, and until another shall be duly chosen and qualified in his stead.

SEC. 2. Any board of education elected according to the provisions of this act, shall have the care and custody of all the property belonging to the district, shall employ teachers and fix their compensation, shall have the control and management of the schools of the district, and examine and allow all claims arising therefrom, and generally shall have and enjoy all the power and authority, and perform all the duties by law pertaining to the offices of prudential and school committees.

SEC. 3. Said boards shall be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, shall choose a president and secretary of their own number, and shall hold meetings as often as may be necessary for the discharge of their duties; and the secretary shall keep a record of all their proceedings in a book kept for that purpose, at the expense of the district. They shall receive no compensation for their services except such sums as the towns in which such boards are created may allow them for performing the duties of school committees within the districts for which they are chosen, which sums may be apportioned among them according to the services rendered by each member in that capacity.

Financial agent;
his report and compensation.

SEC. 4. A report of receipts and disbursements during the year shall be made to the district at every annual meeting by said boards, or by such member of the board as they may appoint to act as treasurer, and if they so elect, to act as agent in providing fuel, furniture and other necessaries for the accommodation of the various schools of the district, who shall receive such compensation as the district may determine.

Boards to make annual reports.

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of said boards to make a report to the school committees of the towns in which such boards have been organized, on or before the first day of March of each year, containing such facts as said school committee shall be required by law to report to the towns at its next annual meeting, and such other information as said school committees shall have occasion to use in making any report required by law to be made.

Annual meetings.

SEC. 6. The annual meetings of such districts as shall avail themselves of this act shall be held in the month of March.

Takes effect, when.

8. Two hundred and ten thousand dollars appropriated.
9. Bonds, how issued and negotiated.
10. Cost of prison limited; explanatory clause; architect; his compensation.
11. Takes effect, when.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

Erection of new state prison demanded.

SECTION 1. That the erection and construction of a new state prison in this state is now imperatively demanded, not only by considerations of humanity and economy, but also for the advancement of the public interests, and for the protection and security of the public peace and public safety.

Three commissioners to be appointed for that purpose; cost and capacity of prison.

SEC. 2. That His Excellency the Governor, with advice of the council, be hereby authorized to appoint three commissioners, whose duty it shall be to procure plans and specifications for the construction of a new state prison, with all necessary offices, workshops and other appurtenances at a cost not to exceed the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, and of sufficient capacity in all its parts and appointments to accommodate and employ two hundred convicts, the said specifications to contain an exact estimate, as near as may be, of the cost of each portion of said prison in detail, viz.: of the land, the foundations, the superstructure, the furnishing of all its parts, and all necessary appurtenances, the cost of the walls enclosing the same, the amount and cost of each and every kind of material to be used in the construction of the same, and cost of labor, and the necessary time required for the completion of said prison; and said plans and specifications, together with the detailed statements and estimated expense, shall be exhibited to public inspection for at least thirty days previous to their acceptance by the commissioners, and approved by the governor and council; to make all contracts necessary for the erection, building and completion of a new state prison in Concord, in the county of Merrimack, in said state, in accordance with the plans and on the site proposed and recommended by the commissioners appointed by the governor under the resolution of the legislature of 1874, or in accordance with any other plan and on any other site, approved by the governor and council and warden of the state prison, which shall provide accommodations for the same number of convicts as provided for by said plan, and which shall reduce the cost to the state; no contract shall be made by said commissioners until they shall have definite plans and specifications for the full completion of said prison, nor shall such contract be made until they have advertised for at least thirty days, in not less than three papers in this state, for sealed proposals under said plans and specifications, for the entire construction of the prison in one contract or in several contracts, for the different classes of work to be done, and such contract or contracts shall be made with the lowest responsible bidders complying with the terms of this act in relation to the amount of bonds required to guarantee the completion of said contracts; and no contract by them made shall be of any binding force or effect until first submitted to and approved by the governor and council; and it shall be the further duty of said commissioners to superintend the erection, building and completion of said prison, and they shall receive for their services each the sum of three dollars per day when employed, and their actual expenses, and their bills shall be approved by the governor and council; and the governor shall draw his orders upon the state treasurer for the amounts due from time to time upon said bills, and the treasurer shall pay the same out of any money provided for said prison by this act. Said commissioners, or either of them, may be removed at any time by the governor and council.

SEC. 3. Said commissioners shall have power and authority to purchase for and on behalf of the state the land recommended by the commission of 1874 as a site for a new prison, said land being owned and occupied by Benjamin Farnum, and lying in said Concord between the public highway leading from Concord to Boscawen and the Northern Railroad, and such portion thereof as in their opinion may be necessary and convenient for the erection and maintenance of such prison and its appurtenances, or any other land which they may select in Concord, such selection to be approved by the governor and council.

SEC. 4. In case said commissioners shall be unable to purchase such land for the state at a price which they deem reasonable, they are hereby fully authorized and empowered to take and appropriate the same for the use of the state for the purposes aforesaid; and if such land is so taken and appropriated for the use of the state, said commissioners shall apply to the county commissioners for the county of Merrimack to assess the damages to the owner or owners of such land, and said county commissioners, upon reasonable notice to all persons interested, and a hearing thereon, shall assess and award damages to the owner or owners of such land for so much land as the commissioners hereby appointed shall designate as necessary and convenient for the purposes aforesaid. Said assessment and award of the county commissioners shall be in writing, and filed in the office of the city clerk of said Concord within ten days after the same is completed, which shall contain a particular description by metes and bounds of the land so taken, as well as of the damages and the persons to whom the same is awarded. And upon payment or tender to the owner or owners of the land of the sums so assessed, the title to the land so taken shall be vested in the state.

Land owner may appeal to supreme court.

SEC. 5. Such land owner or other party interested shall have the right to appeal from said assessment and award to the supreme court in said county of Merrimaek, and to an assessment of said damages by a jury on such appeal, by filing in the office of the clerk of said court a petition in proper form for that purpose, within sixty days after the filing of said assessment and award of said county commissioners in the office of the city clerk as aforesaid.

Old prison to be sold at public auction by commissioners.

SEC. 6. Said commissioners hereby appointed shall have full power and authority to sell, transfer and convey, by deed or otherwise, with the approval of the governor and council, all the real and personal property and estate that is now owned by the state and used and occupied for a state prison, or in connection therewith, when in their judgment the interests of the state will be promoted thereby, provided such sale be at public auction, due notice of which shall be given by publishing the same for one month previous to the date of sale, in the three papers having the largest circulation in this state; the last publication whereof shall be at least fourteen days previous to the date of said sale; such sale may be in whole or in parts, as said commissioners may deem for the interest of the state.

Governor authorized to draw warrants to pay bills.

SEC. 7. The governor shall draw his orders on the state treasurer for the amounts that may be or become due from time to time under the contracts of the commissioners hereby appointed for the purposes aforesaid, after said bills shall have been duly approved by said commissioners and the governor and council, to an amount not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars.

State prison
ated.

SEC. 8. To meet the necessary expenses of building such new prison and purchasing land for the same, the amount of forty thousand dollars, or thereabouts, now in the state treasury, known as the state prison fund, shall be, and the same is, hereby first appropriated. Next, the state treasurer, under the direction of the governor, is hereby authorized to borrow, for the use and in the name of the state, a sum not exceeding sixty thousand dollars, for such time and on such terms as the governor and council shall determine, so that the same may be replaced in the treasury from the sale of the real and personal property and estate of the state now used for and in connection with the present state prison; and further, the treasurer of the state is hereby authorized, under the direction of the governor and council, to issue bonds or certificates of indebtedness in the name and on behalf of the state, to an amount not exceeding one hundred and ten thousand dollars, payable from year to year, in such sums and at such times, not exceeding twenty years at the longest, as the governor and council shall determine, at the lowest rate of interest, payable semi-annually, at which the same can be obtained, such bonds to have interest warrants or coupons attached thereto, signed by the state treasurer; and said bonds and coupons to be made payable at such place or places as the governor and council shall designate. Said bonds shall be designated as "state prison bonds"; it being the intention that such bonds and coupons shall be payable in such sums and at such times as that the income derived from the state prison shall be sufficient to pay such bonds and coupons as they become due, and such income is hereby ordered to be used and appropriated for that purpose.

SEC. 9. All such bonds shall be countersigned by the governor, and shall be deemed a pledge of the faith and credit of the state. The secretary of state shall keep a record of all the bonds countersigned by the governor, showing the number and amount of each bond, the time of countersigning, the time when payable, and the date of the delivery to the treasurer. The treasurer shall keep a record of all bonds disposed of by him, showing the number thereof, the name of the person to whom sold, the amount received for the same, the date of the sale, and the time when payable. The treasurer may negotiate and sell such bonds to the best advantage for the state, but no bond shall be sold for less than its par value, nor shall such bonds be loaned, pledged, or hypothecated in any way whatever.

SEC. 10. The whole cost of constructing and completing said prison, including land, enclosure wall, gates and other fixtures, including suitable workshops, heating and lighting apparatus, the right of way to said prison, and all fees, charges and expenses attending the construction of the same as provided and contemplated in this act shall not exceed the sum of two hundred thousand dollars; and no expense or liability whatever shall be made or incurred in any way on account of the same until the full completion of said prison, with land, wall, gates and fixtures, and payment of all fees, charges and expenses as aforesaid, within the limit of the total sum above named, shall be secured by proper contracts with sufficient guarantees and sureties to the satisfaction and approval of the governor and council; it being the true intent and meaning of this act that said maximum sum of two hundred thousand dollars shall cover and embrace the cost of the land and right of way thereto suitable for the prison, the erection and completion in every respect of the prison building, and the walls, fences, gates and guard houses, but shall also include shops of equal capacity as those now connected with the state prison, and storehouses and other necessary outside buildings; all the grading of the grounds, roads and approaches leading to the prison; all the drainage and sewerage of the prison and appurtenant buildings; all piping of the prison, and appurtenant buildings for gas, water and steam; all necessary furnaces, boilers and apparatus for properly heating the prison and appurtenant buildings; the supplying the prison and appurtenant buildings with water sufficient in supply and satisfactory in quality; the furnishing the prison with all needful and proper furniture sufficient for the use of prisoners and the officers thereof; and no contract shall be completed with the contractor or contractors until said bonds and guarantees, to the amount of two hundred thousand dollars, shall have first been filed with the governor and council. Nothing in this act shall be so construed as to prohibit the commissioners, with consent of the governor and council, from employing a suitable architect or architects to prepare plans and specifications upon which to base their contract for the erection of a new

JOINT RESOLUTION RELATING TO A NATIONAL PROHIBITORY LAW.

Preamble.

Proposed amendment of the constitution of the United States prohibiting the manufacture of distilled intoxicating liquors approved.

Delegation in congress urged to support it.

Secretary of state to transmit a copy to congressional delegation.

Preamble.

Whereas, a joint resolution was introduced in the National House of Representatives during the second session of the forty-fourth congress, proposing an amendment to the constitution of the United States, in regard to the manufacture, importation and sale of intoxicating liquors within the United States, and which is as follows:

“ Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled (two-thirds of each house concurring therein):

Proposed amendment of the constitution of the United States prohibiting the manufacture of distilled intoxicating liquors approved.

That the following amendment to the constitution be and hereby is proposed to the states, to become valid when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states, as provided in the constitution:

ARTICLE —

SECTION 1. From and after the year of our Lord nineteen hundred, the manufacture and sale of distilled alcoholic intoxicating liquors, or alcoholic liquors, any part of which is obtained by distillation, or process equivalent thereto, or any intoxicating liquors mixed or adulterated with ardent spirits, or with any poison whatever, except for medicinal, mechanical, chemical and scientific purposes, and for use in the arts anywhere in the United States and the territories thereof, shall cease: and the importation of such liquors from foreign states and countries to the United States and territories, and the exportation of such liquors from and the transportation thereof within and through any part of this country, except for the use and purposes aforesaid, shall be, and hereby are, forever thereafter prohibited.

SEC. 2. Nothing in this article shall be construed to waive or abridge any existing power of congress, nor the right, which is hereby recognized, of the people of any state or territory to enact laws to prevent the increase and for the suppression or regulation of the manufacture, sale and use of liquors, and the ingredients thereof, any part of which is alcoholic, intoxicating or poisonous, within its own limits, and for the exclusion of such liquors and ingredients therefrom at any time, as well before as after the close of the year of our Lord nineteen hundred, but until then, and until ten years after the ratification hereof, as provided in the next section, no state or territory shall interfere with the transportation of said liquors or ingredients, in packages safely secured, over the usual lines of traffic to other states and territories wherein the manufacture, sale and use thereof for other purposes and use than those excepted in the first section shall be lawful; provided, that the true destination of such packages be plainly marked thereon.

SEC. 3. Should this article not be ratified by three-fourths of the states on or before the last day of December, eighteen hundred and ninety, then the first section thereof shall take effect and be in force at the expiration of ten years from such ratification; and the assent of any state to this article shall not be rescinded nor reversed.

SEC. 4. Congress shall enforce this article by all needful legislation."

Therefore be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

That the movement of introducing in congress a resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution of the United States, so praiseworthy in its character and so important to the well-being of the people of the republic, is heartily concurred in by this body.

Resolved, That as a further expression of the approbation of the legislature of New Hampshire of the aforesaid movement, we hereby respectfully ask the hearty co-operation of our whole delegation in congress in the support of this or some equally efficient measure, in the interest of temperance and true reform in this country.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded by the secretary of state to each of the New Hampshire delegation in congress.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE FARMINGTON AND ROCHESTER RAILROAD.

SECTION 1. Corporation constituted; may lease its road. 2. May build a railroad; its termini and connections; limitation as to land. 3. Shares of capital stock; directors and other officers. 4. Toll granted; excess above 10 per cent to be paid into the treasury.	SECTION 5. Directors may exercise full power; delinquent subscribers, how treated; shares not to exceed $100. 6. Not to obstruct private or public way. 7. By-laws. 8. First, annual, and special meetings. 9. Limitation as to time of completing road. 10. Takes effect, when; may be repealed.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened :

Corporation constituted; may lease its road.

SECTION 1. David T. Parker, James E. Fernald, John H. Barker, John M. Berry, George A. Jones, Charles W. Talpey, Eugene P. Nute, Alonzo I. Nute, Edmund B. Small, Martin L. Hayes, Arthur C. Newell, their associates, successors and assigns, are hereby made a body politic and corporate by the name of the Farmington and Rochester Railroad, with all the rights and privileges, liabilities and duties, by the laws of this state incident to railroad corporations, and necessary and proper to carry into effect the purposes of this act, with the right to lease the railroad hereby authorized to be constructed by them to any other railroad corporation for such period and upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon by the two corporations.

May build a railroad; its termini and connections; limitation as to land.

SEC. 2. Said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to locate, build, and maintain a railroad not exceeding six rods in width, with necessary additions for cuttings and embankments, from some point in Farmington, in the county of Strafford, to some point in Rochester, in said county, and connecting with some other railroad now located and built in either of said towns, or which may hereafter be located and built therein, or not, as may hereafter be regarded by said Farmington and Rochester Railroad to be for the best interest and convenience of the public; but said corporation shall hold no more land, exclusive of what is within the limits of their road and necessary for procuring stone, sand, and gravel, and for machine shops and depot accommodations, than shall be worth at the time of purchase five per cent. of their capital stock.

SEC. 3. The capital stock of said corporation shall consist of not less than two, nor more than four, thousand shares, and the immediate government and direction of the affairs thereof shall be vested in seven directors, who shall be chosen by the stockholders or members in the manner hereinafter provided, and shall hold their offices until others shall be duly elected and qualified in their stead; and the said directors, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, shall elect one of their member to be president of the board and of the corporation; they shall also choose a clerk, who shall also be clerk of the corporation and sworn to the faithful performance of his duties; a treasurer, who shall give bond with sureties to their satisfaction for the faithful performance of his part; and such other officers, agents and servants as they may deem expedient, fix their salaries, and generally shall have and exercise all the powers of the corporation for carrying into effect the objects and purposes of this act.

Shares of capital stock; directors and other officers.

SEC. 4. A toll is hereby granted to the corporation for their benefit on all passengers and property which may be transported on their railroad at such rates as may from time to time be agreed on by the directors; but in any and every year when the net receipts from the use of said railroad shall exceed the average of ten per cent. per annum from the commencement of their operations, the excess shall be paid into the treasury of the state, until otherwise ordered by the legislature.

Toll granted; excess above 10 per cent to be paid into the treasury.

SEC. 5. The president and directors for the time being are authorized and empowered, by themselves or their agents, to exercise all the powers hereby granted to the corporation, for the purpose of constructing and completing their railroad, and for the transportation of persons, goods, and merchandise thereon, and all such other power and authority for the management of the affairs of the corporation, not heretofore granted, as may be necessary and proper to carry into effect the objects of this grant; to purchase land, materials, engines, cars, depot buildings, machine shops and other things, in the name of the corporation, for the use of the railroad and the transportation of persons, goods, and merchandise; to make such equal assessments from time to time on all shares in said corporation as they may deem expedient and necessary in the progress of the work, and direct the same to be paid to the treasurer of the corporation; and the treasurer shall give notice of said assessments, and if any subscriber shall neglect for sixty days after such notice to pay his assessments, the directors may order the treasurer to sell his share or shares at auction, due notice thereof being given, to the highest bidder, and the same shall be transferred to the purchaser; and such delinquent subscriber shall be held accountable to the company for the balance, if his share or shares shall sell for less than the assessment or assessments due thereon, and interest and costs of sale; and such subscriber shall be entitled to the surplus, if any there be: but no assessment shall be laid on any share for any greater amount than one hundred dollars in the whole on each share, and if any greater amount of money shall be necessary to complete said railroad, it shall be raised by creating new shares, giving to the stockholders in the corporation the right to take said new shares in proportion to the shares by them respectively owned in said corporation.

Directors may exercise full power; delinquent subscribers, how treated; shares not to exceed $100.

Not to obstruct private or public way.

SEC. 6. If said railroad in the course thereof shall intersect or cross any private way, it shall be so constructed as not to obstruct the safe and convenient use of such private way; if not so constructed, the owner of said private way may recover his reasonable damages for the injury in an action on the case, to be commenced within two years from such obstruction and not afterwards. If said railroad in the course thereof shall intersect or cross any canal, turnpike road, or other public highway, it shall be so constructed as not to obstruct the safe and convenient use of such canal, turnpike road, or other highway; and said corporation shall have power to raise or lower such turnpike road, highway, or private way, so that the railroad may pass over or under the same. If said corporation shall raise or lower such turnpike road or highway, and shall not so raise or lower the same as to be satisfactory to the proprietors of such turnpike, or to the selectmen of the town in which said highway is situate, as the case may be, said proprietors or selectmen may require in writing of said corporation such amendments or alterations as they may think necessary; and if the amendments or alterations be reasonable and proper in the written opinion of the county commissioners for the county in which such alterations or amendments are proposed, and said corporation shall unreasonably and unnecessarily neglect to make the same, said proprietors or selectmen, as the case may be, may make such alterations or amendments, and recover in an action on the case against such corporation reasonable damages for all charges, disbursements, labor and services occasioned by making such alterations and amendments, with costs of suit. Said corporation shall constantly maintain in good repair all bridges with their abutments, and embankments which they may construct for the purpose of conducting their railroad over any canal, turnpike, highway or private way, or for conducting the same over their railroad, and in default thereof shall be liable to respond in damages to any party aggrieved in an action on the case. If it shall be necessary to alter the course of any turnpike road or other highway, where said railroad may run on or near the same, or for the purpose of avoiding or facilitating the crossing thereof, such turnpike or highway may be so altered, with the approbation of the county commissioners for the county, if such alterations will not, in their opinion, essentially injure said way.

By-laws.

SEC. 7. Said corporation may make, ordain and establish all such by-laws, rules, regulations and ordinances as they shall deem expedient and necessary to accomplish the designs and purposes and to carry into effect the provisions of this act, and for the well ordering, regulating and securing the interests and affairs of the corporation, provided they are not repugnant to the constitution or laws of this state.

SEC. 8. The annual meeting of the members of said corporation shall be holden at such time and place in this state as the corporation by its by-laws, or the directors for the time being, shall appoint, at which meeting the directors shall be chosen by ballot, and the three persons first named in this act, or any two of them, may call the first meeting of said corporation by advertising the same three weeks successively in some newspaper printed in the county of Strafford in this state; and the directors are hereby authorized to call special meetings of the stockholders whenever they shall deem it expedient and proper, giving such notice thereof as the by-laws may require.

First, annual, and special meetings.

SEC. 9. If said corporation shall not have been organized, and the location of its road made and filed in the office of the secretary of state, before the first day of July, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, this act shall be void; and this act shall be void as to any and every portion of said railroad which shall not be completed and fit for use on or before the first day of July in the year eighteen hundred and eighty.

Limitation as to time of completing road.

SEC. 10. This act shall take effect upon its passage, and the legislature may alter, amend or repeal the same or any of its provisions, whenever in their opinion the public good requires it.

Takes effect, when; may be repealed.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE NORTH CONWAY AQUEDUCT AND WATER COMPANY.

SECTION

1. Corporation constituted.
2. May construct an aqueduct and take water.
3. May enter upon and take land.
4. Damages for land taken; how assessed.

SECTION

5. Capital stock; directors.
6. First meeting; by-laws; officers.
7. Takes effect, when.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

SECTION 1. That Samuel W. Thompson, G. W. M. Pitman, Sam'l D. Thompson, N. W. Pease, Isaac M. Chase and W. H. Bragdon, their associates, successors and assigns, are hereby incorporated and made a body corporate and politic by the name of the North Conway Aqueduct and Water Company, and by that name may sue and be sued and have and enjoy all the privileges and powers and be subject to all the restrictions and limitations which by law are incident to corporations of a similar nature. Corporation constituted.

SEC. 2. Said corporation is hereby empowered to lay out, make and keep in repair an aqueduct from any point in the village and vicinity of North Conway to any spring, brook, river, pond or lake anywhere in said town or vicinity which does not now supply any aqueduct, and take water therefrom sufficient to supply said aqueduct and convey said water to the village of North Conway and vicinity—either by logs or pipes of iron or lead as it may deem best. May construct an aqueduct and take water.

SEC. 3. The said corporation is hereby empowered to take and hold such land or lands in and around such body of water as it may need for the use and construction of said aqueduct—also to enter upon and take and hold such land as may be necessary for laying and constructing said aqueduct as it may deem best from point to point between said village and said body of water or stream wherefrom said aqueduct is supplied. May enter upon and take land.

SEC. 4. If said corporation shall not be able to agree with the owners of any land in and around any body of water which it may take or need, or of any land it may need for the construction of said aqueduct—either in making its reservoirs, laying its pipes, or in the construction of any buildings it may need, or if said corporation cannot agree with such owner upon a committee to assess such damage, either party, or if the owner is unknown, said corporation may apply by petition to the supreme court for the county in which such land may be situated, and said court, after due notice to the parties, shall refer the same to the county commissioners for said county, who shall upon due notice, assess such damages, and report the same to said court, and judgment upon said report shall be final and conclusive between the parties, and said corporation shall not, however, enter on any land to construct said aqueduct until the damages assessed to the owners thereof shall have been paid or tendered, except in cases mentioned in the second section of the fifty-second chapter of the revised statutes, and no person shall be entitled to an action for such damages until after such entry has been made on his land. Damages for land taken; how assessed.

Capital stock; directors.

SEC. 5. The capital stock of said corporation shall consist of such number of shares as may be determined by the directors, not exceeding in par value fifty dollars each, and the whole capital stock not to exceed thirty thousand dollars, and no assessment shall be made upon any share to the greater amount than the sum at which the par value or price of each share shall have been fixed as aforesaid; and the immediate direction and government of said corporation shall be vested in five directors, who shall be chosen by the stockholders or members hereinafter provided, and shall hold their office until others are duly elected and qualified in their stead.

First meeting; by-laws; officers.

SEC. 6. The first three persons named in this act may call the first meeting of said corporation by giving ten days previous notice in writing to each of the persons named herein, at which meeting or one duly called, by-laws may be adopted and all necessary officers chosen.

Takes effect, when.

SEC. 2. Said corporation may receive from any person or persons, corporations or associations, any deposit or deposits of money, and may use, manage and improve the same for the benefit of the depositors, in such manner as shall be convenient or necessary for the security and profitable investment thereof. And all deposits may be withdrawn and the net income or profits of the deposits divided at such reasonable times and in such manner and proportions, and subject to such equitable rules and regulations as said corporation shall from time to time prescribe, not incompatible with the laws of this state. ^{May receive and invest deposits.}

SEC. 3. Said corporation may take and hold such real estate as may be proper and convenient in transacting its business, and also such real estate as may be in good faith received by them, by way of security or payment for loans made by them or for any debts, ^{Real estate.}

demands or liabilities which may be owing or accrue to said corporation.

Deposits by minors.

SEC. 4. Whenever any deposit shall be made by any minor, the trustees of said corporation may, at their discretion, pay to such depositor, as may be due him or her, and the check or receipt or acquittance of such minor shall be as valid as if the same were executed by the guardian of said minor or the said minor was of full age: provided, such deposit so to be withdrawn was made personally by such minor.

Corporation not to issue currency; what officers to receive compensation.

SEC. 5. Said corporation shall not issue any bill or promissory note to circulate as currency, nor shall the members or officers of said corporation receive any profit or emolument from said savings bank; provided, however, that a reasonable compensation may from time to time be made to the treasurer, secretary and other servants of said corporation for services actually rendered.

By-laws.

SEC. 6. Said corporation may from time to time make such by-laws, rules and regulations for the government and management of its business as shall not be incompatible with the laws of this state.

First meeting.

SEC. 7. William H. Y. Hackett, Ichabod Goodwin and Edward P. Kimball, or any two of them, may call the first meeting of this corporation at such time and place and in such manner as they may think proper.

Takes effect, when.

SEC. 8. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.
[Approved July 19, 1877.]

CHAPTER CLXXIX.

JOINT RESOLUTION RELATING TO THE CLAIM OF CYRUS K. DRAKE.

Governor and council to audit claim.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

Governor and council to audit claim.

That the governor and council are hereby authorized to examine and audit the claim of Cyrus K. Drake for state bounties, and if said claim is found to be covered by the provisions of chapter four thousand and sixty-seven of the Pamphlet Laws, passed June session, 1865, to pay the same out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, with interest upon the same at the rate of six per cent per annum, from the first day of July, 1865: and the governor is hereby authorized to draw his warrant therefor.

[Approved June 28, 1877.]

CHAPTER CLXXX.

JOINT RESOLUTION RELATING TO THE PROPRIETORS OF PORTSMOUTH BRIDGE.

Preamble. Justices of supreme court to revise and fix rates of toll.

Whereas, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, Edward Cutts, Jeremiah Mason, John Langdon, Nathaniel A. Haven, James Sheafe, John F. Parrott, Thomas Haven, William Rice, Henry Ladd, and others, were incorporated by the Senate and House of Representatives of the state of New Hampshire in General Court convened, under the name of the Proprietors of Portsmouth Bridge, and whereas, by the fifth section of the act of incorporation aforesaid it was further enacted that when said Portsmouth Bridge was made passable for travellers the said proprietors should exhibit to the justices of the superior court of judicature an account of the sums expended for the same, upon the exhibition of which the said justices of the superior court were authorized and required to establish the rates of toll to be received by said proprietors for the use of said bridge, which rates of toll the said justices might alter at such times as they may deem expedient, and by the sixth section of said act of incorporation said proprietors were authorized to demand and receive from each and every person who should pass over the bridge above named such toll as should be established by said justices of the superior court of judicature; and whereas, the said proprietors have negligently omitted to exhibit said account, and in violation of the said act of incorporation have themselves, without legal authority, established excessive and unreasonable rates of toll to be received by said proprietors, therefore,

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

That the justices of the supreme court are hereby instructed to revise the rates of toll now collected by said proprietors of Portsmouth Bridge, and to establish the same at reasonable rates.

Justices of supreme court to revise and fix rates of toll.

[Approved July 14, 1877.]
